Curriculum

The school provides a curriculum for full-time, supervised education for pupils of compulsory school age which complies with statutory requirements (section 8 of the Education Act 1996) although it does not follow all the requirements of the National Curriculum. It provides for students above compulsory school age an appropriate programme of activities which allows scope for their talents and interests to develop and helps prepare them for the opportunities, responsibilities and experiences of adult life. Religious Education is a compulsory part of this education in Reception – 11.

Curriculum in the Junior School (Girls aged 4-11, Years R-6)

Building on the Early Years Foundation Stage (EYFS) Curriculum

The School has an exemption from the EYFS. However the curriculum is in line with the Statutory Framework for the EYFS.

Teaching in the EYFS setting follows the required seven areas of learning and development:

- Communication and language
- Physical Development
- Personal, social and emotional development
- Literacy
- Mathematics
- Understanding the world
- Expressive arts and design

Pupil progress in relation to the early learning goals is recorded, assessed and monitored through the EYFS profiles.

The Curriculum

The Junior School curriculum is based on, and goes beyond, the National Curriculum (2014), as well as meeting the requirements of the 11+ syllabus.

Girls in the Junior School are entitled to:

- A broad and balanced curriculum ensuring the continuity within and across Key Stages
- Progression
- Differentiation to ensure that all girls reach their full potential
- Monitoring, evaluation and feedback

The following subjects are taught in the Junior School:

- English
- Mathematics
- Science
- Computing
- History (through 'Topic' in the Infants)
- Geography (through 'Topic' in the Infants)
- French
- Music
- Art
- Physical Education
- Personal, Social & Health Education, incorporating SRE (Years 5 & 6)
- Ballet (Reception to year 3)

- Debating (years 5 & 6)
- Religious Education
- Philosophy for Children
- Drama
- Latin (Year 6)
- Mindfulness (Year 6)
- Current Affairs (Year 6)
- School Council

Promoting Fundamental British Values

There are many opportunities within the Junior Curriculum to promote British Values for example in PSHE, History and Religious Education, Debating, Philosophy for Children and Current Affairs, in addition to regularly promoting Fundamental British Values in assemblies.

Information about the curriculum

In the Junior School, parents in each form are invited to a curriculum meeting at the start of the academic year, with curriculum overviews for key subjects being disseminated each term.

Curriculum in the Senior School (Girls aged 11-18, Years 7-UVI)

Aims

We aim:

- To offer a curriculum that is balanced, broad-based and academically challenging, with high standards of achievement and that is exciting in its content and delivery;
- To ensure that pupils acquire speaking, listening, literacy and numeracy skills;
- To give pupils experience in linguistic, mathematical, scientific, technological, human, social, physical, aesthetic and creative education, with content and skills appropriate to their ages and aptitude;
- To promote creativity and analytical thinking which encourages initiative, adaptability and independence;
- To promote a life-long love of learning and preparedness for adult life including appropriate careers guidance for pupils receiving secondary education;
- To encourage spiritual, moral, social and cultural development, and respect for the environment;
- To offer personal, social and health education which reflects the school's aims and ethos;
- To make the curriculum accessible and stimulating (as far as is reasonably practicable), including those with physical disabilities and those with mild learning difficulties, so that all pupils have the opportunity to learn and make progress.
- To promote fundamental British values and ensure that courses do not undermine the values of democracy, rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

KS3 curriculum

All pupils study Art, Biology, Chemistry, English, French, Geography, History, ICT, Latin, Mathematics, Music, PE, Physics, Religious Studies and PSHE.

In year 7 girls also have lessons in Touch Typing.

In year 8 girls also have lessons in Current Affairs and Enrichment

In year 9 girls study a second Modern Foreign Language (German or Spanish).

GCSE curriculum

The compulsory core is English Language (IGCSE), English Literature (IGCSE), French, Mathematics (IGCSE), Religious Studies (short course), Science Dual Award (Triple Science for top set) (IGCSE).

Three additional subjects may be added from: Art, Classical Civilisation, Classical Greek, Computer Science, Drama, Geography, German (IGCSE), History (IGCSE), Latin, Music, Physical Education and Spanish (IGCSE).

All students follow non-examined courses in Physical Education and Personal Social & Health Education (PSHE).

Some students have assigned, supervised study periods.

A Level curriculum

Most girls take four subjects in the Lower sixth and three subjects to full A level in the Upper Sixth, although some take five and four respectively.

The following A-level options are available:

Art, Biology, Business Studies, Chemistry, Classical Civilisation, Computer Science, Economics, English Literature, French, Further Mathematics, Geography, German, Government and Politics, History, History of Art, Latin, Mathematics, Music, Music Technology, Photography, Physics, Psychology, Religious Studies, Spanish and Theatre Studies.

The Lower Sixth follow a programme of Advanced Study Skills which can lead to the Extended Project Qualification (EPQ) in the Upper Sixth. In addition all pupils take PSHE and PE as non-examined courses.

After taking their AS Levels, girls undertake at least one week of work experience.

Subject choices

The school aims to allow girls to follow their chosen options for GCSE or A Level, as the option blocks are designed around their choices. It is rare for any pupil's choices not to be accommodated.

Management of the curriculum

The Director of Studies, Heads of Department (Senior School) and Curriculum Coordinators (Junior School) are responsible for the management of the curriculum within their specific area. This includes content, schemes of work, methods of delivery, management of resources and appropriate differentiation etc. Full information is provided in department handbooks.

PSHE curriculum

The PSHE curriculum, incorporating SRE is drawn up by the Head of PSHE reflecting the aims of Francis Holland School and aiming to develop the social, moral, spiritual and cultural development of pupils. It draws on the skills of the current staff as well as visiting speakers. The PSHE curriculum includes economic education.

Careers

The Head of Careers oversees the delivery of Careers education components in years 9 and 11. All pupils receive careers education and higher education guidance where appropriate. Pupils are helped to understand how their strengths, weaknesses and interests relate to the world of work; to learn about different careers and opportunities; to obtain individual guidance; to have some work experience; and to gain information about training, education and occupations beyond school. External careers advice agencies are employed to assess and advise girls at Key Stage 4 (at the end of Year 10 or at the beginning of Year 11) to ensure impartiality and enable pupils to make informed choices about a broad range of options. Girls are also given individual guidance about A level options.

Promoting fundamental British Values

The promotion of the Fundamental British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs (in accordance with Part 2, schedule 1 of the Education (Independent Schools Standards (England) (amendment) Regulations 2014) is embedded in the curriculum and referenced in departmental schemes of work.

Religious studies is compulsory in Years 7 to 11. Pupils study a range of faiths and are taught tolerance and respect for those having different faiths or beliefs. These values are also reinforced in PSHE. Respecting cultural and ethnic diversity is also addressed in the Modern Foreign Languages curriculum. Pupils learn about the rule of law and democratic process in History lessons as well as in PSHE.

Girls in Year 8 have dedicated lessons in current affairs.

All pupils in the school have a voice on the student led School Council. The Council is led by the elected Head Girls' Team and each class is represented by elected Form Captains.

Co-curricular activities, such as Debate Club, Politics Club and the Feminist Society, provide additional opportunities for students to learn about fundamental British values. Debating is a key part of the co-curricular provision, providing opportunities for students to learn how to argue and defend points of view. Opportunities such as a general elections are used to hold mock elections to promote fundamental British values and provide pupils with additional opportunities for discussion and debate.

Whole school assemblies are held at least three times a week and provide additional opportunities to promote Fundamental British values.

Co-curricular activities

The co-curricular programme provides opportunities to enhance and enrich the main curriculum as well as accommodate new interests. Please see the Co-Curricular Policy for further details.

Review of the curriculum

The Senior School curriculum is reviewed periodically by the Senior Leadership Team. In the Junior School the Head of the Junior School reviews the curriculum periodically.

Learning Needs

The Head of Learning Support ensures that appropriate provisions are made in order that pupils with specific learning needs, including those with English as an additional language, are able to make progress. This provision includes any reasonable adjustments which need to be made in accordance with the Equality Act 2010 and which may include provision, free of charge, of equipment, assistance or services to aid those with specific learning needs. All staff are required to sign that they have read information on any pupil that they teach who has specific needs. The Head of Learning Support also ensures that where a pupil has a statement, the education provided fulfils its requirements.

Information about the curriculum

A brief summary of the subject taught, for each year group, is provided with prospectus information. Subject Guides are prepared for pupils in years 9 and 11 at the time choices for GCSE and A level are being made. There is also an opportunity for girls and parents to talk to Heads of Department about their subjects at the Sixth Form Information Evening in the autumn term. Curriculum summaries for each subject are available on the Parent Portal. Curriculum Booklets are prepared for pupils in years 7, 10 and 12.
